

CUSTODY CHECKLIST - RELOCATION FACTORS
(Between parents)

Note: Relocation is defined as "a change in residence of the child which significantly impairs the ability of the non-relocating party to exercise custodial rights." 23 Pa.C.S.A §5322(a).

Per 23 Pa. C.S.A. §5337(h), in determining whether to grant a proposed relocation, the court shall consider the following factors, giving weighted consideration to those factors which affect the safety of the child:

| 5337(h) | FACTOR                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | MOTHER | FATHER |
|---------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------|--------|
| 1.      | The nature, quality, extent of involvement and duration of the child's relationship with the party proposing to relocate and with the nonrelocating party, siblings and other significant persons in the child's life.    |        |        |
| 2.      | The age, developmental stage, needs of the child and the likely impact the relocation will have on the child's physical, educational and emotional development, taking into consideration any special needs of the child. |        |        |
| 3.      | The feasibility of preserving the relationship between the nonrelocating party and the child through suitable custody arrangements, considering the logistics and financial circumstances of the parties.                 |        |        |
| 4.      | The child's preference, taking into consideration the age and maturity of the child.                                                                                                                                      |        |        |
| 5.      | Whether there is an established pattern of conduct of either party to promote or thwart the relationship of the child and the other party.                                                                                |        |        |
| 6.      | Whether the relocation will enhance the general quality of life for the party seeking the relocation, including, but not limited to, financial or emotional benefit or educational opportunity.                           |        |        |
| 7.      | Whether the relocation will enhance the general quality of life for the child, including but not limited to financial or emotional benefit or educational opportunity                                                     |        |        |
